

Children's Landscape Map

What was it like to grow up at Brucemore in the early 1900s? Match the pictures to their location on the map to see how the Douglas girls spent their time.

I was home to a total of 9 children

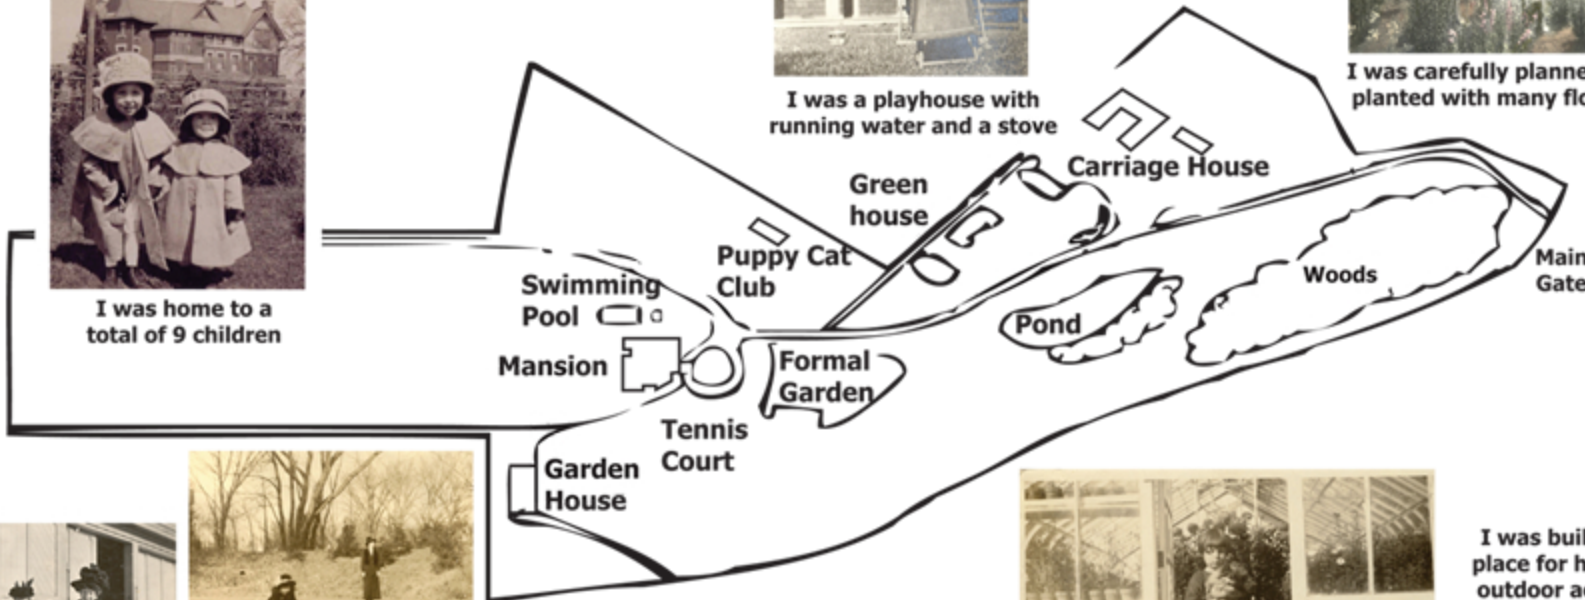

I was a playhouse with running water and a stove

I was carefully planned and planted with many flowers

1st Avenue

I am where horses lived and children played in the hay

I am a place for boating, ice-skating, and swimming

I was given to the girls instead of a party

I am where flowers were grown to plant in the garden

I was built as a place for healthy outdoor activity
