

A Look at the Landscape

What was it like to grow up at Brucemore in the early 1900s? The Douglasses had three daughters named Margaret, Ellen, and Barbara. Match the pictures to their locations on the map to see how they spent their time.

I am where horses lived and children played in the hay.

I am a family home that includes a nursery.

I am a place for boating, swimming, and ice-skating.

I am planted with many flowers.

I was built for healthy outdoor activity.

I am where flowers were grown to plant in the garden.
